THE SPORTS YEAR AT NORTH DALLAS

Hampered by injuries and lack of experience, North Dallas' football team completed a disappointing season in 1950. Seventh period workouts have already begun, and a new, improved Bulldog eleven will take the field next fall.

The Bulldog basketball team, molded by the new coach, John Rowland, showed signs of improving North Dallas' athletic fortunes, winning several pre-season games. All the city games were hard fought; and although our players were generally out-classed, they never gave up; they were game to the end.

The track team, led by returning lettermen Charles Snyder and Jay Winders from last year's city championship team, appears to be developing into a powerful contender in future meets.

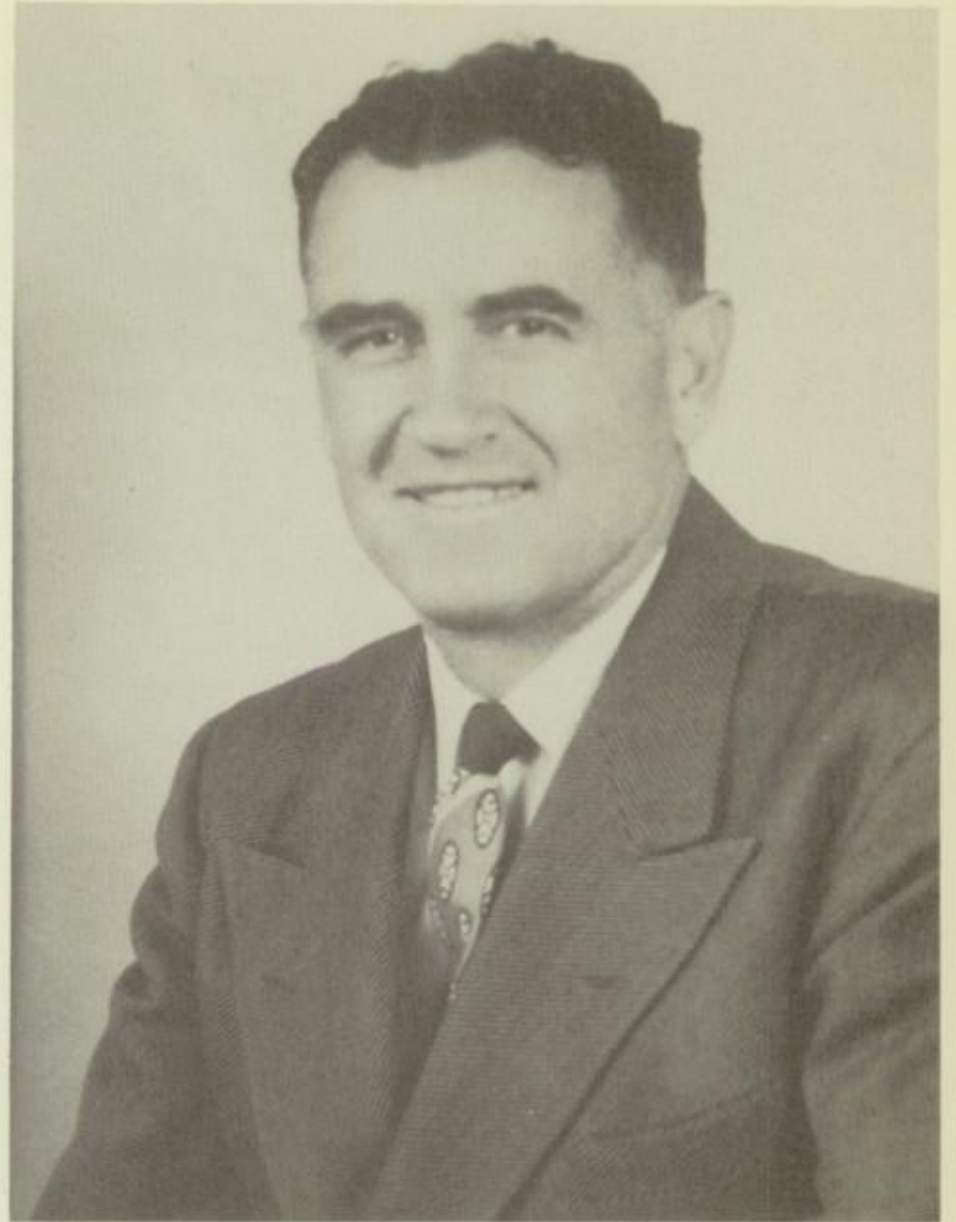

A large baseball squad headed by three returning lettermen, Jeff Aston, Danny Brown, and Mike Treps, has played no games to date, but it appears that an effective nine is shaping up.

The tennis and golf teams, ably directed by their new coaches, Mrs. Dorothy Costin and Mr. Verne Glass for the respective sports, are taking regular workouts in preparation for coming tournaments.
